ANACORTES!

SHIP.·.HARBOUR.

The Rapidly Growing City at the head of the Straits.

During the past week over one-half of the lots offered for sale by the undersigned have been disposed of. A visit to Anacortes demonstrates the fact that never in the history of the Sound cities has there been such rapid progress made in building and other improvement as at the new city on Ship Harbour. The fact that it is almost certain to become the terminus of a transcontinental line which will have the advantage of position over all other cities on the Sound is fully recognized by investors, and numerous transfers of property at advancing prices are being made every day. The country tributary to Ship Harbour is rich in Agricultural lands, timber coal and iron, and the Oregon Improvement Co. are opening up the Cumberland mines, and hope to ship coal from the Anacortes wharves in the course of a few months. Investors have the history of Tacoma and Seattle to guide them in making purchases in Anacortes. These two cities have returned millions of dollars in profits to real estate owners. There is every prospect that the experience of Tacoma and Seattle will be repeated at Anacortes. Therefore, buy now while property can be had at ground-floor figures and you will realize a handsome profit. Apply to

IT STOOD THE TEST.

IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN.

ROUGH—"Say Reddy, what I have told you may seem astonishing, and I don't wonder at your being surprised, but it's as true as guns."

REDDY—"Surprised! Truly I am surprised to know that you have just found out that the cheapest clothing house in Victoria is GILMORE & McCANDLESS'. It's the talk of the town."

ROUGH—"Right you are. I took home three suits last night that they almost gave me, and when I arrived home I found Mr. McGinty's wife at my house. She said the clothes could not be well made for the money, my wife swore they were, and they agreed to test one of the garments."

TESTING THE GARMENT.

"To cut the story short, she left our house vowing that her husband should trade with GILMORE & McCANDLESS hereafter and nowhere else."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A BY-LAW.

Respecting the EXPENDITURE of the MUNICIPAL REVENUE for the year 1890.

WHEREAS, the Council hereinafter mentioned have caused an estimate to be prepared of the Municipal Revenue for the year 1890, and of the expenditure required for the service of that year, a copy of which estimate is hereunto annexed.

AND WHEREAS, it is expedient to authorize by By-Law the expenditure of the said revenue in accordance with the said estimate, therefore:

BE IT ENACTED by the Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria, as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the said Council to appropriate and expend the Municipal Revenue of the said Corporation for the year 1890, for the several purposes and in the manner named or indicated in the estimate hereunto annexed, or as nearly as circumstances permit.

2. All expenditure hereunto incurred by the Council out of the Municipal Revenue for the said year is hereby confirmed.

Passed the Municipal Council the 6th day of February, A. D. 1890.

Re-considered and finally passed the Council this 12th day of February, A. D. 1890.

THE SPECIAL REPORT

Of the Commission Presented to Parliament.

The Times' Parnell Letter was a Forgery.

The Clan-na-Gael Engaged in Promoting the use of Dynamite for Destruction of Life and Property.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The report of the Parnell special commission presented to parliament to-day finds that some members of the House of Commons were not members of the conspiracy to establish the absolute independence of Ireland; but that some of them, together with Michael Davitt, joined the Land League with the intention of accomplishing by its means the independence of Ireland as a separate nation. The commission regards Parnell and the other accused members of insincerity in their denunciation of the Phoenix Park murderers, and finds that the fac simile letter published in the Times, upon which this charge was chiefly based, as against Parnell, was a forgery. The respondents did not directly incite crime except intimidation, which did incite with the result that the crimes and outrages were committed by those incited. The commission also finds that the respondents defended agrarian prisoners, but the charge was not proved that they were intimate with the criminals or that they helped such persons to escape justice. It further finds that the respondents of and accepted subscriptions from, Patrick Ford, an advocate of crime in the use of dynamite, but it is not proved that they were aware that the Clan-na-Gael controlled the land league or was collecting money for parliamentary funds. It is proved, however, that the respondents gave assistance of physical force to the party in America, and that in order to obtain that assistance they abstained from repudiating or condemning the action of that party. In regard to the specific charges against Parnell, the report says the charge that at the time of the Kilmainham negotiations Parnell knew that Sheridan and Boynton were organizating outrages, was not proved, nor is there any foundation for the allegations that he was intimate with the Invincibles or their plans, or recognized

INVITED CO-OPERATION

THE PHŒNIX PARK MURDERS

as their handiwork. The commission also fails to find that Parnell sent Bryne a remittance to enable him to escape to France. The judges find that Davitt was a Fenian, and that he received money from the "Skirmishing Fund" for outrages, which money was not for the formation of the league, but for the promotion of an agitation leading up to it. Davitt was mainly instrumental in bringing about the alliance of the party of violence in America with the Parnell party in America. The report reviews the history of the league, and declares that the leaders combined to injure the landlords and drive them out of the country by means of a system of boycotting, thereby being guilty of criminal conspiracy. Touching the contradictory evidence of

LE CARON AND PARNELL

Over their interviews in the corridor of the House of Commons in 1881, the commission holds that the balance of probability was in favor of the accuracy of Le Caron. It was clear that Le Caron wrote to Devoy to come to Europe and see Parnell and Egan. Parnell denies that he told Le Caron that he had long ceased to believe in anything but the force of arms as a relief for Ireland, basing his denial on the fact that he never thought so. It was impossible that in conversation with the supposed resolutionist Parnell expressed himself in such a manner as to leave the impression that he agreed with those who favored the resolutions. The American conventions are quoted as proving the identity of the sympathy and sentiments of the Irish leaguers with the physical force party. The mass of evidence proved that that league in America since 1883 has been directed by the Clan-na-Gael, and has been actively engaged in promoting the use of dynamite for the destruction of life and property in England. It is not proved, however, that Parnell knew the position of the Clan-na-Gael.

PRESS COMMENTS.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The Daily News says the report of the Parnell commission has vindicated at once the character of the Irish leaders and the integrity of the English bench. The upright judges, whose prejudices, if they exist at all, are against home rule, have cleared publicly an ugly cloud. The Post congratulates Parnell, who was immediately the victim of gross injustice. It remains for the British electorate to estimate alike the acquittal of Parnell and the condemnation of Davitt, though honor is due to Davitt as the chief denunciator of crime and outrage. The Telegraph is unable to say that the long and costly trial has borne very valuable fruit.

A LIBERAL CONFERENCE.

Gladstone will hold a conference with his parliamentary colleagues to-day as to what action the opposition will take on the Parnell commission report.

AMERICAN NEWS.

Serious Train Collision.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 13.—News has just reached here of a frightful collision on the Atlanta and Great Southern railroad near Coaling, about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, between a south-bound special excursion train consisting of twelve pullman coaches carrying over 1,000 and a north-bound accommodation. Engineer Ed. Doolittle of the special was killed instantly, and some ten or twelve people on the accommodation were hurt. The trains were running at a great speed and both engines, baggage and several other cars were demolished. Particulars are meagre. The excursion train was en route to New Orleans. None of the passengers on the excursion train are reported killed. They were from Chicago and points in Ohio and Illinois.

The Brazilians Congratulated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 13—The Senate to-day passed unanimously a joint resolution congratulating the people of Brazil on their adoption of a republican form of government.

Lincoln's Birthday.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—The 81st anniversary of the birthday of Lincoln was commemorated by the Republican club to-night at Delmonico's. Speeches were made by Senator Culloin and Congressman Dolliver.

Destructive Fire in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—About half past six o'clock this morning fire originated in the Adams and Market Street corner of the Farwell block, and before the flames were under control that section of the building was completely gutted from the top floor to the bottom. The first alarm was speedily followed by a general alarm being turned in, bringing the engines from all parts of the city. The tug Geyser came to the rescue, and anchoring at the Adams street bridge, threw a heavy stream upon the burning structure. The fire started in the pressing department of Worth Brothers, manufacturers of clothing and uniforms, on the sixth floor, and spread from one floor to another with great rapidity. It required the greatest exertion on the part of the firemen to prevent the spread of the flames throughout the entire block. A fire wall running through the block sixty-six feet on Monroe street, and another running parallel with the river 175 feet west of the street, saved the north end of the building, occupied by J. V. Farwell & Co. The firms which occupied the burned end of the building are: Work Bros., manufacturers of clothing and uniforms, and Taylor Bros., manufacturers of hats and caps and clothing. The losses are: Work Bros., $325,000; Taylor Bros., $50,000; building, $15,000; Mendel Bros., $10,000.

Train Accident.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 13.—Through the negligence of a brakeman on an accommodation train from the West, due at 9.40 p. m., it ran into an open switch at Bellevue; Ohio, to-night, and crushed into a light engine on a siding. Both engines were wrecked and Fireman Young of the light engine was killed. Engineer Phelps of the passenger train was severely hurt. Fireman Simpson of the passenger train had both legs broken and was hurt internally. A lady passenger named Wooster had several ribs broken, but is not fatally hurt. Conductor Hoyt suffered a scalp wound and was badly bruised.

Trouble on the Reservation.

PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 13.—Last night serious trouble occurred on Mile Square. Shooting was common all night long. One man, the leader of the South Pierre boomers, called "Jesse James," was cut and shot, and is now lying in a serious condition. Another man named Walgemath is also badly hurt, and a number of others were sand-bagged and hurt. Meetings were held and committees were appointed for the county and city and for various other purposes, including one to confer with the Northwestern Railway Co. regarding the conflicting claims of the road and of the settlers who now occupy every foot of Mile Square. A vigilance committee yesterday went to a widow woman named Evans, who had moved a house on to a lot which she claimed had been jumped by a man named McKee, and ordered her to remove tht building at once or they would move it for her. She defied them, and this morning a mob removed the house to the street. A car containing prominent North-Western officials came in to-night, and they will at once take means to enforce their claims as owners of Mile Square. This will still further complicate matters and will surely lead to trouble. Men who were at the opening of Oklahoma say the disorder on that occasion was small compared with what can now be seen here.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

Fifth Parliament—Fourth Session.

ELEVENTH DAY.

THURSDAY, Feb. 13th, 1890.

The Speaker took the chair at 2:10 p. m.

Prayers by Rev. P. McF. Macleod.

READING PETITIONS.

The petitions of Marshall Bray and others, asking for the incorporation of the Nanaimo Telephone Co.; of the Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Co., applying for an act of incorporation; and of Harry Abbott, D. Oppenheimer and others in reference to the Ashcroft and Cariboo railway were, on motion, received.

OUT OF ORDER.

Mr. Speaker ruled out of order the petition of Robt. Dexter, presented by Mr. Duck, which asked for relief, involving an indirect expenditure.

REPORT.

The committee on railways reported the bill entitled the British Columbia Railway Act, which they recommended. Report adopted.

A RETURN.

Hon. Mr. Robson presented the following returns: A statement of the names and places of residence of collectors of revenue paid by commission, rate of same, and date of authority therefor; a statement of Commons established under the Cattle Ranges Act, showing the revenue collected for the fiscal year ending 30th of June, 1889; and a statement of bonds deposited in the Provincial Secretary's office by civil officers of the province for the due performance of their duties under the "Civil Service Act."

TO CONSIDER THE SPEECH.

Hon. Mr. Turner moved that the speech of His Honor, the Lieut.-Governor, be taken into consideration on Tuesday next. Carried.

A QUESTION.

Mr. Ladner asked the hon. the premier: "Has the money received by the government from the lands at Sumas and Chilliwhack conveyed to the province by the Dominion Government under 52 Vic., Chap. 7, Statutes of Canada, been set aside as a fund for the purpose of reclamation, or has it been paid into the consolidated reserve fund, and what amount has been derived from the said land?"

Hon. Mr. Robson—No; I am not aware that it was ever intended to so set it aside, and at any rate it could only be done by the legislature. The money has, of course, been paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The amount will be given in returns already asked for.

MUNICIPALITIES BILL.

The House went into committee, Mr. Smith in the chair, upon the Municipalities Amendment Bill (Hon. Mr. Beaven).

The committee remained in session during the remainder of the afternoon, reporting progress at six o'clock.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Duck, with permission of the House, presented the petition of the National Electric Tramway Co.

Mr. Anderson laid before the House the petition of H. S. Mason and others.

Both were tabled.

WESTMINSTER ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.

Mr. Cunningham introduced a bill to incorporate the New Westminster Electric Light and Power Co. Bill read a first time and referred to the Private Bills Committee.

A RETURN.

Hon. Mr. Vernon presented a return of Orders-in-Council, etc., respecting the 45,037 acres of lands acquired by the province in connection with the Sumas Dyking Lands.

The House rose to sit again on Tuesday at the usual hour.

CAPITAL NOTES.

A Busy Day in the Parliament Buildings.

Weather Reports to be Furnished for British Columbia.

A Refund of Duty on Certain Mining Machinery Refused—The French Members Incensed at McCarthy.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—This has been an exciting day in the parliament buildings. The French members are greatly incensed against McCarthy, and will not compromise. A ministerial caucus this morning, by 44 to 44, decided against Beausoleil's amendment, and it is understood this will be voted down in the House, when the premier will move another amendment relegating the matter to the territories.

Many speeches were delivered in the House to-day. Sir Hector Langevin was very bitter against McCarthy and Mills. Bothwell made the best speech during the debate. The discussion again comes up to-morrow.

The Manitoba delegation have secured a promise from the government to collect the weather reports and post up the probabilities daily throughout the North-west and British Columbia. The Canadian Pacific cars will be marked with weather signals.

Hon. Mr. Bowell in the House this afternoon said that the British Columbia government had made application for a refund of the duty on mining machinery, but no refunds would be granted, because it was not shown what portion of the machinery could be made in Canada. When this was shown the refund would be granted.

Sir A. Caron acknowledged this afternoon that some time ago Adjutant-General Powell had tendered his resignation, which he refused to accept.

Sir John Thompson went to Toronto to-night. He will be called to the Ontario Bar to-morrow.

Rykert made an explanation in the house to-day relative to lands in the timber limit, but Powell gave him a sound dressing down for unwarrantably using his name.

CANADIAN NEWS.

The Hull Riot.

OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—The local authorities of Hull having failed to protect Miss Wright and her band of gospel workers from mob violence on Tuesday, after having given assurance that there would be no hostile demonstration, those interested in the work of the evangelists there have resolved to petition the Quebec government to protect them in the exercise of what they believe to be their civil rights.

Hon. Mr. Abbott's Illness.

MONTREAL, Feb. 13.—Hon. J. J. C. Abbott is far from recovered from his recent illness. His medical advisers have urged a temporary cessation from work. Mr. Abbott, accompanied by his daughter, left for St. Augustine, Fla., last evening.

The Report About Premier Greenway.

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—The News last evening says a dispatch from Hon. Thos. Greenway, premier of Manitoba, to his solicitors in Toronto, denies in toto the account of the scandal regarding him, which the news had from a Chicago source on Feb. 6th. On Feb. 9th the News expressed the opinion that there was no truth in the story, and Mr. Greenway's repudiation of it was looked for. The News extremely regrets the publication of the matter, which it did without intent to injure him in any way and tenders an apology to Mr. Greenway for the same.

SELF-APPOINTED EXILES.

Montana Democratic Senators Visiting Washington.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., Feb. 11.—W. H. Becker, of Montana, the democratic senator who was arrested at Bozeman last Friday, taken to Helena and forced to attend a session of the legislature, arrived in this city on the 11 o'clock train yesterday and was soon after in company with the five other Montana democratic senators, Thornton, Reed, Parberry, Hennessey and Baker, who have been in hiding here for several days. Becker says he got awfully lonesome among so many republicans, and determined at the first opportunity to escape. He was carefully watched until the west bound train pulled out on Sunday night, when the vigilance was somewhat relaxed.

He waited until 10 o'clock when he chartered an engine and car and started in pursuit of the regular passenger train, and although seven hours behind in the start, such fast time was made thot the train was overtaken at Missoula and Becker got aboard. The senators now here will leave for Seattle to-day and probably visit the Washington legislature. They mean to keep away from Montana until the 20th of this month, when the legislature will be forced to adjourn. They say they will remain along the line of the Northern Pacific, however, in order to return to Helena immediately in case a compromise is effected.

VOLCANIC ERUPTION.

Mount Zoo, Japan, Scatters Destruction on the Surrounding Country.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—The steamer Gaelic arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama late last night. Japanese advices give the following details of one of the most terrible volcanic eruptions in the recent history of Japan:

Mount Zoo, near the town of Fukuyama, Bingo district, commenced to rumble at 8 o'clock on the evening of January 16. This continued two hours, followed by a short cessation, during which period the inhabitants of the neighboring village rushed away from their homes in great confusion. Soon the top of the mountain was lifted off, the din being equal to a dynamite explosion, and sand and stones belched forth, falling in the neighborhood of Fukuyama, where the smoke and fire were also blown by the wind. At the entrance of the town the ground was covered with sand and earth to the depth of over a foot. Stone and earth also fell at Midsumonurar village, six miles away.

No previous eruption of Mount Zoo is on record. Only one man lost his life, but some stock was killed and fifty-five houses destroyed. The total loss by the eruption is estimated at nearly $3,500,000.

THE JUCH OPERA COMPANY.

A Successful Season at Portland—The New Theatre Crowded at Each Performance

PORTLAND, Ogn., Feb. 13.—The grand opera season at the Marquam Opera House, Portland, by the Emma Grand English Juch Opera Co. is meeting with remarkable success. The beautiful theatre is packed at every performance by the elite of the city, and the audiences are delighted and extremely enthusiastic over the magnificent operatic productions by this admirable organization. Miss Juch's impersonations of "Marguerite," in "Faust," and "Carmen" in Bizet's romantic opera of that name, are a revelation to the opera patrons, and the charming prima donna's every appearance receives an ovation. The business is enormous. The house for the next three performances is entirely sold out, and seats for the "Frischutz" performance are commanding a premium of from five to ten dollars each. It is estimated that the gross receipts for the seven performances given in this city will reach $18,000. The entire company leave next Sunday morning for Victoria, thence to Tacoma and Seattle.

CABLE NEWS.

The Free Education Project.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Daily News says that the members of the ministry have intimated to several prominent supporters of the Government in Parliament that the project of free education has been completely abandoned.

An Arbitrary Order.

ATHENS, Feb. 12.—Advices from Crete are that many more judges and lawyers have resigned their judicial and legal functions, owing to an arbitrary order requiring legal proceedings in courts to be conducted in the Turkish language, and that others are preparing to leave both the courts and the country.

British War Ship Ashore.

ZANZIBAR, Feb. 13.—The corvette Conquest, of the British navy, is ashore on the Island of Pemba, thirty miles north of here. She lies in a dangerous position.

Comment on the Duke's Sentence.

PARIS, Feb. 13.—All the republican journals approve of the sentence of two years' imprisonment imposed on the Duke of Orleans. They declare that the possibility of pardon is precluded by the demonstration indulged in by the Orleanists. They even assert that a reduction in the sentence is impossible. The Journal says it hopes the government will not allow the provocation of the royalists to prevent it extending clemency to the young duke.

Reported Dead.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—It is reported here that the Sultan of Zanzibar is dead.

The Cretan Outrages.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 13.—The Porte, acting on the request of the American minister, Mr. Hirsch, has confined in his own palace the Kurdish chief, Moussa Bey. Moussa is accused of having perpetrated robbery and outrages on Christians in Armenia.

The Parnell Commission's Report.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The report of the Parnell commission comprises 162 pages. Each member of the Parnellite party is treated separately. The judges find that the speeches of many of the Parnellite members of the House of Commons were intended to bring about the political separation of England and Ireland. Another view presented by the report is that in the present state of Ireland the speakers must have known that their utterances were calculated to foment crime in that country.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Strike of Seamen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—The Pacific Coast steamships Corona, for San Diego and State of California, for Portland, were detained several hours to-day by the union men leaving the vessels. They claim that they were employed principally to handle freight at terminal and way ports, and have been compelled to work nearly all the time during the trips. Both steamers obtained non-union men in their places. It is reported that all the members of the union employed on the vessels of the company running out of here have been ordered out.

A Jury Disagrees.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—The second trial of Benjamin Davis, charged with the murder of his wife last July, resulted in a disagreement of the jury to-day. The stood six to six.

PURSUED BY BLOODHOUNDS.

An Irate Father's Futile Efforts to Overtake His Eloping Daughter.

TAHLEQUAH, I. T., Feb. 12.—In the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ark., thirty-five miles northeast of this place, lives and labors the Rev. Mr. Hall, the father of one of the prettiest girls in the district, by name Minnie. William Smith is a farm hand who was employed by a neighbor of the preacher's. Last Sunday the old man, on returning from Sabbath school service, found his daughter and Smith together. Smith had one arm around Miss Hall's waist. This sight aroused the Rev. Mr. Hall's temper to an uncontrolable pitch, and he proceeded to do up Mr. Smith in one round, the young lover coming out of the fight with swollen eyes and a sprained wrist.

On the following night, by means of a ladder placed against the window of the girl's bedroom, she escaped, and accompanied by her lover, hied herself to the Indian territory, taking with her one of the best horses on the farm, together with $100 in cash. On awakening this morning and finding his daughter missing, the reverend gentleman, with one other man, commenced pursuit with bloodhounds, leaving this place at 12 o'clock last night, and proceeding on to Bradd's station early this morning. Since leaving here it has been learned that the young couple preceded the pursuing party some hours, and succeeded in getting married and making their escape by the railroad.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT

Debate on the Address in Reply to the Speech.

Negotiations in Regard to the Newfoundland Fisheries.

A Favorable Settlement with America Looked Forward to of the Canadian Fisheries Question.

IN THE COMMONS.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The address in reply to the Queen's speech being moved, Mr. Gladstone said that he regretted that England had come in conflict with her old ally, Portugal, but it was better that action should be prompt. Gladstone congratulated the government on the amicable and satisfactory arrangement of the Samoan dispute, and trusted that the government would not suffer the Porte to gloat over the facts of the persecution of the Christians in Crete and the outrages in Armenia. He was gratified at the government's admission that crime and outrage had greatly decreased in Ireland, but denied that the diminution of violence and the increase of prosperity were due to the operation of the coercion policy of the Government. On the contrary, the betterment of Ireland's condition was due chiefly to the improved state of agriculture. He hoped that the Local Government Bill would be conceived in a liberal spirit. If the proposals were niggardly they would merely produce new materials for agitation.

Hon. W. H. Smith said the Government would exert its influence in favor of justice to the Cretans and Armenians. The Irish Local Government Bill, he said, would be drawn up on the lines of existing legislation for England and Scotland, with especial adaptation to the varying conditions. (Hear, hear, from Government benches.) He was quite sure that the bill would not be found too narrow.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—In the House of Commons this evening, Sir James Ferguson, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, stated that the government was conducting negotiations with France tending to settle the existing dispute in regard to the Newfoundland fisheries. If no conclusion should be reached within a reasonable time a modus vivendi would be arranged for one year, pending further consideration of the matter.

THE DEBATE ON THE SPEECH.

The debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech was then resumed.

Labouchere said he had no reason to dissent from the government's course in the Portugal difficulty, holding that in the circumstances an arbitrary course was the only possible way to deal with the Lisbon government. He sharply attacked the concession granted through the Dukes of Fife and Abercorn to the British South African company, and expressed his inability to see that those gentlemen had any right to charge royalties on the mines in Africa.

CANADIAN FISHERIES QUESTION.

Sir James Ferguson announced that negotiations are proceeding under favorable auspices for a settlement of the Canadian fishery question between England and America.

Prof. James Bryce, pursuing the discussion of foreign questions, said that any benefit accruing to British subjects in Samoa were due to the spirited action of America.

THE OPERA SEASON.

Miss Emma Juch Sings Marguerite in "Faust" Most Artistically.

> "I know not, dearest, when thy face I see,
> What doth my spirit to thy will constrain;
> Already I have done so much for thee,
> That scarcely more to do doth now remain."
> Goethe's "Faust."

The Oregonian devotes considerable space to the opening performance of the Emma Juch Opera Company at Portland on Monday night last. In its lengthy criticism the Oregonian says:

There is a charm about Gounod's opera of "Faust" that seemingly will never wane. Besides the sad and appealing story of the libretto, the music itself is of that dreamy, sensuous character that appeals strongly to the admiration of most lovers of music.

The role of Marguerite, to the aspirant for grand opera honors, is like that of Juliet to the would-be dramatic artiste. All want to essay it. Few, however, reach to the point of portrayal, either dramatically or vocally, which the role demands. Among those few none, perhaps, so truly realizes the ideal of the master as does Miss Juch. She has the physical attributes which aid her greatly in her work—flaxen hair, the teutonic mould of features and a soft blue eye capable of a world of expression. She shows, too, in her conception and execution of the role an intelligent idea of its demands, which many singers have failed to exhibit. The great Christine Nielson was an ideal Marguerite, but she was cold. Lucca erred to the other extreme, while Kellogg never did have any idea of the demands of the role.

Miss Juch, however, impresses the auditor as she makes her first entrance, with prayer-book in hand, robed in a quiet dress of pure white, with eyes cast down and a beautiful modesty and simplicity of demeanor, as the simple German maiden whom Gœthe had in mind when he wrote his immortal poem. There is also the very embodiment of guilelessness in the cadence of her voice as she repulses the advances of Faust. Her vocal work is not begun until she sings the "King of Thule" song, which she does in a most delightfully suggestive manner. Her voice is full of melody, beautifully toned and handled with the skill of the accomplished artist. In the "Jewel Song," its resources are still further taxed, but she is equal to the difficult runs and trills and the continuous vocal strain, which makes the number so trying. Generous applause followed her rendering of it. In the final duet, "The Hour is Late," she sang with an abandon and an artistic fire called for by the situation. Her vocal and dramatic work also in the trio at the end of the piece was simply superb. Mr. Hedmondt's Faust was in general satisfactorily acted and sung, though there was a decided tendency to flat at times. His singing of "All Hail Lowly Dwelling" was a fine vocal effort and warmly applauded.

Signor Tagliapietra, as Valentine, demonstrated that he has not lost any of his vocal power and artistic method. He rendered the medallion song in a manner worthy of him, and in the difficult number preceding the death scene he was dramatic in the extreme.

The Mephistopheles of Franz Vetta disclosed a basso voice of fine volume and admirable tone. He sang the "Calf of Gold" in an effective style, but the serenade was even better sung. He acts the part well, though rather inclined to overact it.

RISES TO EXPLAIN.

The organ of the Opposition has thrown up the sponge in the contest on the Education question which it so wantonly provoked. It, in Wednesday's issue, virtually acknowledges defeat. It made the very strange admission that its strictures on section nine "and its concomitant features" were not directed against the Minister of Education. Its accusations and its denunciations, numerous and fierce as they were, were not, it now confesses, directed against anyone. It has all along, according to its own admission, been fighting with the creations of its own imagination. Our readers may well be excused if they think that in saying this we are amusing ourselves at their expense. But we are thoroughly in earnest, as the following extract from the article headed "The Orthography of the Education Office" will very clearly show. In that article our contemporary says:

"The Premier chooses to regard the Times' strictures of section nine and its concomitant features AS DIRECTED AGAINST HIMSELF. THEREIN THE GENTLEMAN IS IN ERROR. The Times objects to the law and the blending in one man of the highest political and educational functions in the province."

According to this the Times, for the last five or six months, has not been condemning the Premier for what he has done, but for what he might, could, would or should have done. The Times now declares, in effect, that it never said that the Government has transformed the Education Department into a political machine; that it never meant to convey the idea that the Minister of Education intimidated teachers and bullied trustees; that it never tried to create the impression that the Primier is an autocrat in the Department of Education, and that teachers tremble before him for fear that he should suspend them or cancel their certificates. We are greatly pleased to know this and are sorry that it expressed itself so unhappily as to lead the readers of the Times to believe that it wished it to be understood that the Premier was guilty of all these offences, and that he was playing the part of educational despot. The public know now that this was all a mistake, and that its diatribes against the Department of Education and a certain personage on whom it conferred the title of "Honest John," were not directed against the Premier, and if he or any one else thinks so he is in error.

We confess that we were among the multitude who misunderstood the utterances of the Times on the education question. We really believed that it was trying to bring the Premier and his government into discredit by endeavoring to make the people believe that they were treating those teachers who would not consent to become their humble and obedient servants in matters political harshly and unjustly. The Times, however, tells us that we were wrong, and we would not for the world think of contradicting the Times in a matter in which it is necessarily the best judge. It has absolved the Premier and his colleagues, or rather, has declared that it did not intend to accuse them of wrong-doing with respect to their administration of the Education Department. We would be very unreasonable if we were not satisfied with this declaration, and very impolite if we did not express implicit belief in every word of our contemporary's recantation.

The Leader of the Government's promptness in insisting upon the enquiry suggested by Mr. Semlin's motion, which he showed no great zeal in bringing before the House, had of course nothing whatever to do with our contemporary's very unexpected disavowal. Mr. Robson's action did not "strike terror" into its heart. But the train of thought it suggested evidently led the Times to see the necessity of correcting the misunderstanding which its articles had caused. We infer from the article before us that it believes that the corespondence asked for, when it is laid on the table of the House, will, to use its own figure, be "as straight as a string," and that it will prove that the Premier had not abused the power vested in him. When this correspondence is "ventilated in the House" our contemporary seems to be convinced that there would not be found in it any evidence of "crookedness or bulldozing," and that it does not contain a word to substantiate the accusation that "Honest John" ever "bulldozed a pedogogue or wheedled a trustee." Seeing that the organ of the Opposition believed that the correspondence asked for by Mr. Semlin would show in the clearest manner that there is not the very slightest grounds for any charge of tyranny and injustice that might be brought against the head of the Department it is not surprising that our contemporary has tened to assure its readers and the public generally that it never thought of making any such accusation, and that Mr. Semlin had no other motive in asking for the correspondence than a wish "to study the orthography and the syntax of the chiefs of the Education Department." Is it not pleasant to be told that Mr. Semlin is so innocently studious and that the organ of the Opposition is so delightfully ingenuous?

DISGUSTED WITH ITSELF.

The Times has expressed its desire to let the accusation which it has brought against the Attorney-General respecting the term "foreigner" drop. It has, it asserts, become a "chestnut." We have no doubt that like the demand which we made for facts to substantiate its charges against the Education Department, it has heard more about it than it liked. The "iteration" had become "nauseating." The quiet but very severe rebuke administered to it by "A British Columbian" was a most unpleasant pill for it to swallow. But would it not have been better if it had not undertaken to misrepresent the Attorney-General's language? Its trying to do so was a very mean, paltry piece of business, and we are not surprised to find that now, when it is brought to see its very contemptible conduct in its true light, it feels somewhat ashamed and wants to hear nothing more about the matter. The Opposition has been most unfortunate in its attacks on the Government. In its attempts to bring the administration into disrepute it has only shown in a very conspicuous way how weak and dishonest it is. It now confesses that it had no grounds whatever for its violent assault on the Educational Department, and it finds that its attempt to bring discredit upon the Attorney-General is considered so stupid and at the same time so malignant that, for its own credit's sake, it is only too glad to let it drop. If the organ would only try for a little while to be honest and fair and civil it would not, we think, be disappointed with the result of the experiment.

TOO LATE FOR ARBITRATION.

Some American editors who have not taken the trouble to enquire into the matter represent Great Britain as having taken advantage of Portugal's weakness—as having acted the part of a bully and a bulldozer. There are others, more moderate, who believe that the British government ought to have referred the questions in dispute between Great Britain and Portugal to arbitration. These critics seem to forget that Portugal was the aggressor in this matter, that without giving warning of its intentions and without declaring war, it invaded territory under the protection of Great Britain and mowed down with gatling guns the natives who would not submit to its rule. What is any nation to do in a case of this kind? Is it not bound to repel force by force. Arbitration is to be resorted to before force is used—to prevent the assertion of alleged rights by a resort to arms. Had the Portuguese before Major Serpa Pinto invaded Makololo offered to submit the claims of the two countries to sovereignty over this and the other territories in dispute, to arbitration, and had Great Britain declined the offer, there would then be good reason to blame Lord Salisbury. But that is exactly what Serpa Pinto and the Portuguese authorities did not do. That officer was very busy for some months in collecting a force of some 4,000 men, giving out that he merely intended to take his expedition into the interior for scientific purposes. When he was prepared he began his journey. When he entered the Makololo country he threw off the mask and required the chiefs to submit to him and to acknowledge the sovereignty of Portugal. The missionaries, whose advice was asked, counselled the chiefs to submit to Serpa Pinto for the time, and some of them did so. But one of the chiefs, Mlauri, would not be restrained. He was determined to resist the invaders, and he bitterly reproached the British, who had promised him protection, with not being as good as their word. The patriotic savage was unsuccessful. His warriors were slaughtered and his village was burned by the invaders. The prestige of Great Britain was destroyed in that part of Africa. The natives naturally believed that Great Britain did not protect them, because she was not able to do so. Another effect of Serpa Pinto's successful invasion was to endanger the lives of the missionaries, who are stationed in considerable numbers in the country claimed by the Portuguese. The Rev. C. A. Smythie, bishop of the Universities Mission, who had been in the country during Pinto's invasion, writing from Mozambique on December 5th, says:

"The position has now become exceedingly critical, and the British residents in the district who have sacrificed so many lives and spent so much money in the country, and have been for so many years the only European residents, are most anxiously waiting to hear what help is to be given them from home, and how the assurances of the Government are to be regarded."

Under these circumstances how was the British Government to act? Was it to spend time in negotiations which would confirm the natives of Africa in their opinion of their protector's powerlessness, and still further endanger the lives and the property of the British residents; or should it insist upon the withdrawal of the Portuguese troops from Makololo and the Shire highlands and demand reparation for the injuries done to the people whom Great Britain had taken under her protection? It is very evident that prompt action was required. The natives should be made to know that Great Britain is powerful enough to protect them, and the subjects of Queen Victoria who had taken up their abode among the negro tribes should have reason to feel that they were safe as long as the Union Jack floated over them. It would be time enough to talk about arbitration after Great Britain had asserted her right, and the country was in, as nearly as possible, the same condition as it was before Major Serpa Pinto made his raid upon his peaceful and unoffending neighbors, who, depending upon British protection, were not in a position to offer him any resistance that was in the least effectual.

Our readers will see that if the British Government had hesitated to demand instant satisfaction from the Portuguese Government it would have acted weakly and unwisely. To have consented to an arbitration then would have been to condone the offence that Major Pinto had committed and to offer a premium on violence. Arbitration is prescribed by the Act of the Berlin Conference as a preventive of warlike operations. If Portugal believed that it had a valid claim to the land it invaded, it should have proposed arbitration before it attempted to enforce that claim by the last argument of kings. Having had recourse to that argument it is only right that it should be compelled to abide by the result.

We are quite sure that if Portugal had defied any other European power in the same way as it defied Great Britain it would not have been treated with so much consideration. Lord Salisbury was not peremptory until he was forced to demand an immediate answer from a shuffling and prevaricating Government.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

THE Premier scored one yesterday in Committee of the Whole on Mr. Beaven's Municipal bill. In dealing with the section which provides that, in a city two-thirds of the lot owners and resident householders must petition for a liquor license before it can be issued. Mr. Robson managed to have the words "and their wives" inserted, thereby giving women an equal voice with men in the matter. One member objected, remarking: "If you do that, no new licenses will be issued," to which the Premier replied: "So much the better." As the author of the amendment truly said, the matter is one which concerns women as much as men, and they should have an equal voice in determining whether a house in their neighborhood shall, or shall not, be licensed to sell intoxicating liquor. They have that power already in rural districts. Why should they not have it in cities? We consider this an important step in temperance reform, and it is to be hoped that the women will not be slow to make good use of their newly acquired power.

BRITISH COLUMBIA MILITARY.

Annual Report of Lieut.-Col. Holmes on the State of the Active Militia of the Province.

(From Advance Sheets of the Militia Report.)

MILITARY DISTRICT NO. 11.

HEADQUARTERS, VICTORIA, B. C.,
8th Nov., 1889.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit, for the information of the Major-General Commanding, the following report on the state of the active militia of this district for the current year:—

ESTABLISHED STRENGTH.

	Officers and Men.
Artillery, Garrison (4 Batteries)	187
Rifles (1 Company)	45
Total	232
Authorized to Drill	230

Performed Drill to date:—

	Officers.	Men.
Batteries (3)	10	118

The officers commanding the artillery and rifles at New Westminster have applied for authority to carry out their annual drill during the coming winter.

The headquarters batteries, British Columbia brigade garrison artillery, have completed their drill, and were inspected by me on the afternoon of the 7th inst., and their appearance on parade, and drill generally, was extremely creditable, considering the great disadvantage they labor under in not having a creditable drill shed, &c. Those batteries have all performed their gun practice in accordance with orders for annual drill. Gun used, 64-pr., R. M. L.; range, 1,350 yards—no longer one available. Scores were very good. The score sheets have been forwarded to the inspector of artillery. Inspection report forwarded herewith.

These corps also furnished the guard of honor to His Excellency the Governor-General on his arrival at Victoria, on the 31st October last, and His Excellency was pleased to express his approval of the smart appearance of officers and men.

Master Gunner Cornish, R. C. A., has acted as instructor to these batteries, and credit is due to him for the careful manner in which they have been drilled and turned out on parade.

I would again strongly recommend a supply of rifled guns for the battery at New Westminster. The artillery equipment of this battery is now complete, and in very good order. Still, as the oldest battery in the district and one of the best, I think it due them that this change be made, the present equipment being handed over to one of the new corps recommended.

DRILL SHEDS.

The drill sheds in the district are not at all suited for the requirements of the force, being too small, and in Victoria badly situated.

BATTERIES.

Batteries are in fairly good condition, and until work is commenced on the new forts for the defence of Esquimalt, need only slight repairs from time to time, as may be necessary.

MAGAZINES.

Attention is again called to the absolute necessity of a new magazine for the storage of gunpowder and ammunition. The present one is badly situated and a new one should, and I hope will, be built within the barrack enclosure.

STAFF.

Capt. Jones has given me all the assistance in his power in carrying out the various duties. I would respectfully urge that extra pay be given him for the great addition to his work caused by his having to act as paymast to the "C" Battery Royal School of Artillery.

I have also to report that, as far as possible, all orders in connection with the performance of annual drill have been carried out.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

J. G. HOLMES, Lieut.-Col.
Acting Deputy Adjutant General, Military District No. 11.

ANNUAL REPORT ON "C" BATTERY, REGIMENT OF CANADIAN ARTILLERY, AND ROYAL SCHOOL OF ARTILLERY.

VICTORIA, B. C., 8th Nov., 1889.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit, for the information of the Major-General Commanding, this my annual report on the state of "C" Battery, R. C. A., and Royal School of Artillery, under my command for the past year, and to again recommend for favorable consideration the various suggestions made by me in my last report, under the following heads:—

Present strength,
Establishment,
Barracks,
Arms, accoutrements and clothing,
Hospital,
Divine service,
Status and discipline,
Pay and allowance,
Forage allowance,
Artillery instruction.

BAND.

This is, considering the reduced numbers at present, owing to casualties from discharge and desertion, in a very fair state. It may, however, be expected that unless a considerable draft of men is sent to us before long it will be necessary to break up the band entirely, as it will be required to take up regular military duty, such as guards, etc., in regular turn, owing to the want of duty men.

OFFICERS' AND SERGEANTS' MESSES.

These are still kept up and in a satisfactory state. The want of suitable mess premises for each is much felt, as the present quarters are poor in the extreme. The cost of messing is about one-third higher than in eastern stations.

FORTS AND ARMAMENTS.

These are now in want of certain small repairs, such as new platforms and partially new revetments.

Caretaker's quarters at Macauley Point and artillery and shell store and magazine on Brother's Island are required.

Magazine accommodation too small, and store and side-arms incomplete.

Many articles destroyed last year at Brother's Island not yet replaced.

A boat is much needed, to enable visits to be made to Brother's Island.

The annual allowance of three rounds per gun was fired from 7-inch guns; results not satisfactory; 8-inch guns not fired owing to want of sights.

Two carriages for 64-pr. guns are required. Naval slides for 7-inch and 8-inch guns should be replaced by traversing platforms.

MAIN MAGAZINE.

This is situated in the public park, Victoria, and the municipal authorities are excavating the ground close to it for a small pond. This will not tend to make it a suitable place for the storage of all of the gunpowder on charge.

It is time that steps were taken for the construction of a magazine in the new barracks, where the sentry at the main gate could overlook it. The present magazine is entirely without military protection.

RIFLE PRACTICE.

This is being carried out under the supervision of Major Peters (who is very enthusiastic with regard to it), and with good results.

The practice last year was not completed, owing to the closing of the only available range, and it is only through the kindness of Mr. Henly, of Clover Point, that we are enabled to carry out the practice this year. If possible, a range should be purchased near the new barracks, in order that no stoppage of this important part of a soldier's training may occur.

INSPECTION BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

The Battery was honored with an inspection at the temporary barracks by His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Stanley of Preston, on the 2nd of November last, who was good enough to express himself much pleased with the appearance of the Battery on parade, as well as with the arrangements of the barrack room, guard room, offices, &c., &c.

His Excellency also, on the 4th inst., visited the Battery at McCauley Point and the new barrack huts, at Work Point.

CONCLUDING REMARKS.

I deem it important, in conclusion, to point out that at the end of October, next year, the period of engagement of 57 men out of a total present strength of 72 will be completed, and on enquiry, only three of them have expressed their willingness to re-engage.

As it is clearly proved, after two year's trial that men cannot be got upon this coast to fill the ranks, something must be done towards sending drafts from the Eastern Provinces. It would be better, if it is intended to maintain the Battery, to send a draft NOW of enough to fill vacancies—28 in all—in order that they may be instructed and qualified to become Non-Commissioned Officers, the want of suitable men to fill these positions being, even now, much felt. Should nothing be done, I may safely say that on the 1st of November, next year, the strength of "C" Battery will be about 25 Non-Commissioned Officers and men, or only the fourth part of the authorized establishment.

I wish to express my satisfaction with the way that the officers and non-commissioned officers, generally, have carried on the duties during the past year under circumstances most trying and discouraging.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant.

J. G. HOLMES.
Lt.-Col., R. C. A., Commandant.
The Officer Commanding, Regiment, Canadian Artillery, Ottawa.

ENDING A STORMY LIFE.

An Educated Wife Takes Poison After Many Escapades.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Marian Eaves, 28 years of age, the daughter of Judge Eaves, a prominent attorney of Greenville, Ky., attempted to commit suicide this morning by taking morphine. The woman has led a tumultuous life in this city. Ten years ago, after graduating from a fashionable Kentucky seminary, she was married to a man named Reno.

Shortly after her marriage she met Albert Wing, an old schoolmate, and eloped with him to St. Louis. A few days after the pair reached here Wing met a mutual friend and schoolfellow, Joe Glenn. He invited Glen around to see Mrs. Reno and all three renewed the fast friendship of their school days. Glenn soon captured the fancy of the fickle Mrs. Reno and one night Wing ordered him from Mrs. Reno's room. He refused to go and Wing shot him dead. The murderer was captured and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Reno was arrested and gave the name of Essie Davis, under which name she has sunk to the lowest depths.

She was a handsome woman, of fine education, and made every sacrifice to secure Wing's acquittal. She is not expected to live, as the morphine had been taken several hours before she was discovered.

Travelers.

The following passengers left for San Francisco yesterday by the Queen of the Pacific: Jno. Wright, Mrs. L. Erb and son, Mrs. Geo. Haynes, C. Smith, Miss Smith, R. Porter, jr., J. C. Ashton, B. Ross, A. Baldwin and Mrs. L. McAdams.

Another Burglary.

Several nights ago the Union Club was entered between dusk and daylight by someone evidently acquainted with the premises, who thoroughly ransacked each room that was likely to contain valuables. Several drawers were pried open and a small sum of money secured. The police have a clue to the thief.

Investigating.

This morning the select committee of Provincial Legislature consisting of Messrs. Haslam, Croft, Orr, Ladner and Cunningham, appointed to enquire into the construction and collapse of the bridge over the north arm of the Fraser River, went over the Mainland to pursue their investigation at the scene of the accident. They will examine witnesses in regard to the breaking of the bridge and present their report to the House next Tuesday.

A Test Case.

Messrs. Eberts & Taylor, city barristers, in a report to the City Council last evening informed the Board that Mr. Bryce, the commercial traveler who was recently fined in the police court for refusing to pay the city license, intends to test the constitutionality of the city by-law under which the conviction was secured. The case will be watched with interest, especially by the legal fraternity, as it has no precedent in Canadian court practice.

Turning Out the Salmon Fry.

The Fraser river hatchery is going to turn out an immense number of salmon fry this season, and all in the very best condition. The fry are hatching out beautifully, and the losses are much below the average, due to careful attention while in the ova state. The little fellows are as sprightly now as young trout, and they are growing very fast. The first batch of 100,000 will be turned loose next week in Pitt Lake if the weather is favorable, and from that date forward the fry will be deposited in the various lakes and streams as fast as the work can be safrly accomplished. Mr. Max Mowat will take charge of the distribution of the fry.—Columbian.

Newcastle Quarry.

Mr. Jas. Hall, superintendent of the Newcastle Island quarry, is in town looking after the interests of his company. He reports work progressing favorably and expects to be able to take orders for both dressed and undressed stone in a few weeks from British Columbia and American cities.

This stone will likely be used in the construction of many of the buildings to be put up in this city during the coming year. Geo. A. Cooper has been appointed agent in this city.

Freight and Trade Notes.

The Queen of the Pacific took 20 tons of hides and 10 tons of rice for San Francisco yesterday.

The Maude took 600 boxes tin and 45 tons miscellaneous freight for northern points last evening.

The Lakme was to have left Portland last evening with 200 tons cement and miscellaneous freight for this port. She had to leave 2,000 tons of flour behind on account of the wharves being washed away by the flood.

The steamer Princess Louise brought from the Fraser last evening 258 packages merchandise and farm produce.

The Islander last night brought as freight four cars flour, one car plate iron and one car merchandise.

The steamer Olympian last evening brought a carload merchandise, including a large quantity of seeds for Victoria seedsmen.

The U. S. Consul at Victoria.

The Oregonian's Washington correspondent wires: "The great contest over the appointment of a consul at Victoria, B. C., was settled to-day by the nomination of Levi W. Myers, of Iowa. He is a country editor who has never held an office before, and his appointment was made apparently to prevent the office being used for the purpose which the many candidates wanted it for. There were over 100 applications for this consulship, and the office is not so important, but the fact that it gives the occupant an opportunity to speculate in the growing towns along Puget Sound and the coast made it very desirable. A man in the consul's office at Victoria may keep informed on all matters of speculation and can easily visit the towns in the vicinity. A number of the applicants stated that they wanted the office because it would give them a first-class opportunity to get a foothold in the new state of Washington."

Worthless Paper.

Just as the Sound steamer was making ready to leave her dock yesterday morning Sergt. Walker discovered on board a young man named E Levy, against whom a warrant had been issued charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. Levy was placed in the cells, charged with fraud upon two counts; and later in the morning appeared before the police magistrate, reserved his pleading, and asked for a remand to procure legal advice. The remand was granted.

Levy, who is an agreeable and popular young fellow, came to Victoria about four weeks ago, and soon fell in with rapid company. Cards and wine quickly exhausted his money, which he spent with a free hand, and a few days ago he drew two checks which he had no money in the bank to protect. One was in favor of Richard Bray for $42; the other made payable to Thos. Garvin for $12.50, and it is these checks which have got the signer into trouble.

Irish Fun.

John S. Murphy and his carefully balanced company played to a small but well-pleased audience in The Victoria last evening. The house deserved was a crowded one, for seldom has pure and healthy Irish fun been better interpreted on the stage of The Victoria. The star was not afraid to let his company be seen at their best and the result was that every part was made sparkling and attractive. The lines of Kerry Gow, which was the bill, are amusing at one time, pathetic at another, but always natural, while the play was full of realistic effects and dramatic climaxes, with a little good music as sauce piquante. This evening Shaun Rhue will hold the boards; and in speaking of it the Post-Intelligencer says: "The farewell performance of John S. Murphy at Turn Hall theatre last night was fully as successful as the two nights proceeding, and a fair-sized audience witnessed the play of "Shaun Rhue" and laughed at the keen wit and repartee of the clever Irish comedian. There are many strong situations which add much to the success of the piece, but the one great attraction, the particular star, in his own peculiar firmament, is the character of Larry Donovan, who keeps the audience almost continually in laughter, and Shaun Rhue, "who came down thirty-two miles," is a faithful portrayal of the "Far down," and the rich brogue is as natural as can be found in all Ireland. Mr. Murphy has with him the one great incentive to success, a first-class company. Every actor seems well adapted to the part assigned, and they play to the star in a manner that commends itself to all. The "Shaun Rhue" is a better piece than "Kerry Gow" and is destined to prove a greater success.

Appointed.

The U. S. consulate in this city has received notification from Washington of the appointment of Mr. Levi W. Meyers, of Iowa, to succeed the late Col. Stevens. The new consul is to assume office early in March.

Dr. Guthrie's Plans.

Dr. Guthrie will leave in a few days for his home in Guelph, Ont., intending, however, to return very shortly and square up his Seattle accounts amounting as he says to $2,250. He also intends taking action against the western newspapers, which he states have "lied" about him.

The Assault Case.

The case of T. W. Patterson, mate of the schooner Penelope, charged with assault, was up before E. Johnson, Q. C., S. M., in the provincial court yesterday and occupied the whole day. Several witnesses were called and after summing up their evidence his honor inflicted a fine of $50 to include all costs of the case. S. P. Mills for the defense and J. P. Walls for prosecution.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

THE GLOVES.

Next Wednesday evening at Professor Foster's gymnasium the fistic tournament which has been announced for some time will take place. The cups for which the athletes will contend are splendid specimens of silverware, and ought to put every man among the contestants on his mettle. The trophy for the open competition is especially handsome, being in the form of a beautiful silver cup, richly engraved. The work next Wednesday evening will take the form of deciding by preliminary heats who are to box the final heats at the Victoria Theatre on March 1st. It may be interesting to know that the winner of the open competition will be amateur champion of British Columbia. The intending contestants are training hard for the struggle, and those who have had the benefit of Professor Foster's instruction will be sure to make a fine showing. Several competitors from the Mainland will take a hand in the mill and there will be sure to be a crowded house to witness the event.

A KNOCK-OUT.

Pete McCoy and Charlie Gleason, middle-weights, met in the gymnasium of the Golden Gate Athletic Club, San Francisco, Wednesday night. The contest was short but fierce, and McCoy knocked Gleason out in the sixth round.

FOOTBALL.

RUGBY.

The following team will meet all comers for a friendly match next Saturday afternoon at Beacon Hill at 3 o'clock: Roberts, full back; H. T. Martin, B. Fisher, E. E. Billinghurst, threequarters; L. Crease, P. Hibben, Burstal, W. Kennedy, W. Langley, H. Allison, W. H. Langley, B. H. T. Drake, W. Clarke.

The all comers team is not limited with regard to numbers, and it is hoped that the Association players will combine and give the Rugby men a chance of practice to enable them to better represent Victoria in the forthcoming matches with Vancouver and the Mainland.

The city council have decided to sell the lots owned by the city at the upper end of Pandora street, and apply the proceeds to the purchase of a suitable site for a new drill shed.

CUTTING prices on furniture seems to be the order of the day. Not wishing to be outdone by anybody, JACOB SEHL has decided to enter the cutting field and cut down prices 10 per cent. lower than any other firm, on the largest and best assorted stock in the province, of furniture, carpets, linoleum, matting, window blinds, crockery, glassware, lamps, etc. Call and convince yourself at Nos. 66 and 68 Government street.

Medium—These are the days of mediums. That is what our store is—medium in location, medium in quantity, speaking generally, and best of all, medium in price. People of Victoria, furniture was never cheaper than it is to-day, and it is this medium store you have to thank. If you don't believe it, just look at some of their advertisements. They have to come down 10 per cent. on their own acknowledgment to get where we stand. We are, therefore, also the medium who have scattered to the winds these old time prices, and the more you patronize us the better we get both in quality and price. LOST WITH ALL HANDS.

Wreck of a Lumber Vessel on the West Coast.

Not One of the Crew Left Alive to Tell the Story of the Wreck—West Coast News.

Mr. J. L. Penney, of Brown & Penney, arrived from the West Coast yesterday afternoon, bringing news of the total loss of a lumber-laden vessel near Clayoquot and the drowning of all of the crew.

Mr. Penney left Clayoquot on Sunday morning for Nanaimo, via Alberni, in company with Armstrong, the Alberni mail carrier. They found the snow on the summit, between Cameron Lake and Alberni, three feet deep, and had the greatest difficulty in making the trip. The horses stumbled and floundered through the soft snow, and were thoroughly done up and their feet badly cut when Nanaimo was reached Wednesday. At Nanaimo Mr. Penney took the train for Victoria, and upon his arrival in this city he kindly furnished THE COLONIST with the following news:

About two weeks ago, after one of the heavy gales which have prevailed on the coast, Indians came to Messrs. Brown & Penney's store at Clayoquot, and reported that a ship laden with lumber had been lost on a reef south of Vargas Island, about five miles from the Clayoquot store. That from seven to eight thousand feet of lumber had come ashore, and that all hands on the vessel had been drowned. The Indians searched along the beach, but could find no bodies up to that time. The place where the vessel was wrecked is so rocky and exposed to the full sweep of the wind and waves that she must have speedily gone to pieces after striking the reef. One of the masts with a mass of cordage was floating over the reef, held in place by some of the ropes being entangled in the rocks. With this exception and the large quantity of lumber strewn along the rocky beach, there was not the slightest trace of the unfortunate vessel or her crew, or anything to indicate her name or where she was bound for. One clue, and that a slight one, was found which may lead to the identification of the unhappy ship and her ill-fated crew. The Indians showed Mr. Penney a small leather pouch such as is commonly worn by sailors, and which the natives said they found among the lumber on the beach; but most likely the article was picked up in the water in the vicinity of the wreck. In the pouch were several letters and discharges for one Peterson, of Abo, Finland. The pouch and its contents is now in the possession of Rev. Father Heynen, of Clayoquot, and if any further details of the wreck are discovered the news will be sent to Victoria at the earliest opportunity.

SEALING NEWS.

Mr. Penney reports that the sealing schooners Sapphire and Beatrice were at Ah-housit waiting for their Indian crews, the weather being so rough that the natives refused to ship until milder weather set in. During a heavy blow the Sapphire dragged her anchors and fouled the Beatrice, carrying away some of the latter's head-gear, but inflicting no serious damage.

The seals along the coast were very plentiful, the heavy weather being the means of driving them close in-shore.

The Barclay Sound Indians had secured about one hundred skins, but refused to part with them, preferring to wait for higher prices.

Mr. Penney and the mail carrier brought a heavy mail from the west coast settlements.

A SPECIAL SESSION.

Loan By-Laws Advanced a Stage and Other Business Transacted.

An adjourned meeting of the aldermanic board was held in the mayor's office last evening, the principal business brought forward being the consideration of amendments to the Municipalities Amendment Act.

Definite action upon the question was finally adjourned until the city barristers and Hon. Mr. Beaven could meet the council at a special meeting called for the purpose of considering desirable amendments.

NEEDED FURNITURE.

The purchase of vault doors required for the new city hall was authorized, the hall committee being instructed to take the matter in hand.

FIRE ALARMS.

Mayor Grant informed the board that he had not yet seen Inspector Young in regard to the fire alarms detained under the charge of under-valuation, nor did he consider that it would be necessary to see Mr. Young until some reply was received to the strong representations already made to Ottawa in the matter.

NOT THEIR BUSINESS.

Ald. McKillican reported that the scavengers were dumping offensive matter on the beach near the Ross Bay garbage wharf. They were outside of the city limits, however, they were working for private individuals, and the city had no control over them in any way. He had been informed that while the city had obtained permission to build the garbage wharf they had not received permission to dump refuse from it, and if dumping was resumed action would be taken against the corporation.

The council informally decided to make no attempt to rebuilt or use the wharf.

LOAN BY-LAWS.

On motion of Ald. Goodacre, the by-law to raise by loan $35,000, to complete the additions and improvements to the City Hall, was read a first time.

Before this by-law went to the people Ald. Harrison hoped that it would be clearly explained to the ratepayers that its passage meant the return of $35,000 from the general revenue to the funds appropriated for street improvement.

The by-law to authorize a loan of $25,000 for park improvement passed its first reading without comment.

On motion a by-law to justify a loan of $12,000 for cemetery purposes passed its first reading.

Ald. Smith hoped that the ratepayers would understand when this by-law was voted on that the money was required for the enlargement of the cemetery.

Ald. Vigelius hoped that the statement of these by-laws laid before the people would satisfy "Victorian," who had been writing letters to THE COLONIST for the past couple of days.

Mayor Grant corrected Ald. Vigelius. "Victorian's" letters had been published every day for the last three days. If "Victorian" would father his communications by signing his own name, it could be seen whether or not he was in a position to claim information on the subjects he talked of. If he was a ratepayer he had a right to ask for information and to get it.

Ald. Vigelius said that if he was a ratepayer he might be allowed to come and examine the corporation books.

Ald. Robertson said that whatever there was in Victorian's letters he appeared to be after the Mayor and the old council "pretty lively."

Mayor Grant replied that the financial statements of the city had been placed before the ratepayers before the elections, and every one of the old council that had offered himself for re-election had been returned. He thought this was the best answer Victorian could receive.

On motion a by-law to authorize a bonus of $25,000 to induce the establishment of an immense sawmill at Esquimalt or Victoria was read a first time.

NEGLECTED.

The application of Mrs. Heay, for remuneration for keeping a little boy named Philip Hankin, who was deserted by his mother on her marriage to Lawren, the newly appointed Indian agent on the Skeena, next came up for consideration.

It was shown that the step-father of the deserted child was drawing a salary of $1,800 a year, and could well afford to provide for his family; and the mayor was instructed to communicate with him, and also to lay the facts of the case before the Indian Department.

DESERVING CHARITY.

Ald. Harrison and Holland moved that the sum of $50 be donated to Mrs. Hewlett, widow of the late Quarter-Master Sergeant Hewlett, of "C" battery. The resolution was carried unanimously.

REPORT.

A report from Eberts & Taylor, re corporation actions and arbitrations now pending, was received and filed, and the council adjourned at 9:30 p. m.

CITY POLICE COURT.

(Before Hon. A. N. Richards, P. M.)

Ely Levy, charged with obtaining the sum of $40 from Richard Bray under false pretenses, was, on the request of his counsel, Mr. Helmcken, remanded until to-day.

Ah Hing, a miserable looking Chinaman, charged with vagrancy, was sent up for one month.

Another Celestial, charged with assault, was remanded until to-day.

G. C. Anderson, charged with entering Mr. Prevost's residence, was also remanded until to-day.

ASHCROFT GOSSIP.

[Correspondence of the COLONIST.]

Mr. John Glassey has been very sick for the past four weeks with la grippe, but is recovering now and expects to be around again in a few days.

Mr. J. J. McKay has gone to Victoria for his health, after a severe attack of la grippe.

Miss McLean, from Kamloops, is visiting Miss McNicols of this place.

The I.O.G.T. lodge that was organized by Mrs. Moore, while lecturing here, is flourishing, there being an addition of twelve new members at the last meeting.

The Literary Society of Ashcroft has become quite an interesting institution, some of the debates being very amusing as well as instructive.

The Sunday school started by Miss King some four months ago has grown wonderfully. There is to be a meeting of the teachers to-night to arrange for sending for a library for the Sunday school to cost $40.

The weather has become quite mild, reducing the snow rapidly and the sleighing also.

It is rumored that T. Harper is coming back to run his estate here again. As for the flour mill property, it would be much more satisfactory to the farmers around here to know if the mill was going to work or not, before seeding time, as a great many would grow more grain in this part of the Thomson river valley if they were sure they would have a chance to mill it satisfactorily. JAKE.

Ashcroft, Feb. 10th, 1890.

MARINE.

Steamer Maude left for the North last evening.

Schooner Pathfinder left yesterday morning for the hunting grounds.

Steamer Queen of the Pacific will make one more trip to this port before being taken off the route.

The four-masted schooner Douglas Dearborn has been spoken in latitude 10 degrees south, longitude 132 degrees west. The Dearborn is the schooner which was reported bottom up off the Columbia river several weeks ago. When spoken all on board were well.

The steamship Wellington arrived at San Francisco on Wednesday, eighty-five hours from Departure bay, with a cargo of 1,300 tons of coal, reports fine weather on her passage down the coast.

Capt. Jordan states that when twenty miles north of Cape Mendocino the steamer passed through large quantities of driftwood and a number of immense trees with roots and branches attached.
